

“We can establish, develop, and implement plans for your company’s transition to new management or ownership — and can also help with general tax planning and compliance and IRS audit assistance and tax advocacy.”

William A. Rooney, CPA/MA

Senior Principal

Bill Rooney, a senior principal in the Tax Group at GHP Horwath, has more than 20 years of experience working in a range of tax areas. He has extensive expertise working with businesses of all kinds, from limited liability companies, to partnerships, and S Corporations, and handles individual tax, trust, real estate, multi-state taxation, non-profit organizations, and IRS issues. Bill is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) registered in the state of Colorado who specializes in medical practice consulting and tax planning, including physician compensation calculations, ownership transfers, and entity selection. He is well versed in business acquisitions and dispositions, liquidations, qualified retirement plans, and general income tax research and planning.

In addition to his general tax experience, Bill has provided expert witness testimony for various court hearings related to financial, accounting, and income tax matters, and has attended congressional and IRS hearings in Washington, D.C. And throughout the years, he has taught several income tax courses on topics ranging from individual income tax matters to S Corporation issues.

He joined GHP Horwath in 1990. Before that, he was a manager in the tax department of Laventhol & Horwath, a predecessor firm to GHP Horwath. Bill has an M.A. and B.S. in Accounting from the University of Denver.
